

Marketing and Communications Summer Fellowship (June - August)

Boston Harbor Now is seeking an engaged, highly motivated individual for a Summer Fellowship in Nonprofit Marketing and Communications. The position is specifically focused on marketing all aspects of Boston Harbor Now's work on Boston's waterfront and in the Boston Harbor Islands National and State Park. The role will require social media management skills and digital content creation, which may include photography, videography, graphic design, and copywriting. Some support of community organizing, event planning, and other projects may be required in alignment with your interests and our needs. Boston Harbor Now offers our interns and fellows a professional work environment, mentoring, and support for job seekers. We also cover internship-related local travel expenses. Role will also require some surveying of waterfront visitors and may require some weekend and evening shifts.

Ideal candidates would exhibit:

- The ability to work both on a team and independently
- Comfort and familiarity with basic social media platforms (FB, IG, Twitter, YouTube)
- A nearly obsessive attention to detail
- An affinity for writing witty copy
- An eye for the perfect Instagram post
- A desire to learn more about Boston Harbor and what makes it awesome.

Compensation: $4000 stipend

To apply: Send a cover letter, social media samples, and resume to Christian Merfeld at employment@bostonharbornow.org
