

Boston Harbor Now is looking for three high school students to spend their summer on the waterfront!

What: Learn about urban planning, public space, climate change, and community outreach on Boston's Harborwalk, Harbor Islands, and the Greenway. Be part of our diverse team. GET PAID!

When: July 9 to August 17

Who: High school students living in every neighborhood of Boston between the ages of 16 and 18 are eligible to apply to be MLK Scholars.

Your Job: Create content for blogs, newsletters, and social media, and develop recommendations for improving parks and open spaces.

Your Skills: Good at working on a team, enjoy doing research by interviewing or observing, document places by taking photographs and writing about your experience, curious about the city and the harbor

Your Summer: Explore East Boston, Charlestown, Long Wharf, and Georges Island. Collaborate with professionals who are working on the waterfront. Learn new skills that can apply to college and future jobs.

Interested? Send your resume and an email about why you're excited to work with us (or your questions about the job) to Alice Brown at abrown@bostonharbornow.org.

Applications will be accepted on a rolling basis through June 22.

