

BOSTON HARBOR NOW

CREATIVE PRODUCTION INTERNSHIP

Boston Harbor Now is a non-profit organization with a bold mission: to ensure a vibrant and sustainable future for Boston's harbor, waterfront, and islands. Boston Harbor Now works with public and private partners to increase awareness, access and engagement with our harbor while enhancing the resiliency of our waterfront.

We are seeking an engaged, highly motivated individual for a summer internship in non-profit marketing and content production. The position is specifically focused on creating assets for Boston Harbor Now's work on Boston's waterfront and the Boston Harbor Islands National and State Park. The role will require skills in digital media production, which may include photography, videography, graphic design, and some copywriting.

You'll produce engaging videos and photos from our content to be used across web platforms and social channels. Candidates should be able to tell a story, and understand how to integrate content into meaningful mission-based design. Boston Harbor Now offers interns and fellows a professional work environment, mentoring, and support for job seekers. Internship-related local travel expenses will also be covered. The role will require frequent outdoor exploration of waterfront areas and some weekend and evening shifts.

Ideal candidate would have:

- The ability to work both on a team and independently
- Skills in pre-production: Shooting engaging pieces, storyboarding, and attention to detail
- Skills in production: Assisting with lighting, audio, camera operation, and set-up
- Proficiency in video editing and post-processing with Adobe Premiere or similar software
- An affinity for parks, the outdoors, and community outreach
- The desire to learn about Boston Harbor and what makes it a destination

Hours: This position starts the second week of June and lasts until Labor Day, understanding flexibility may be needed for academic schedules. Commitment is 40 hours per week, with some evening and weekend events required.

To apply: Send a cover letter, portfolio, and resume to Lilli Vo at lvo@bostonharbornow.org.