About Boston Harbor Now:
Boston Harbor Now works at the intersection of people and nature to advocate for open space, public infrastructure, and private sector development that will enhance public access to the Harbor and protect the City and the region from the impacts of climate change. We seek to activate the Harbor, reconnect it with Boston’s neighborhoods, and protect water-dependent uses. We build and broaden the constituency for the Harbor by engaging people through diverse programs – promoting access to the waterfront and the Boston Harbor Islands National and State Park Area.

About the National Parks of Boston:
The National Parks of Boston is a constellation of three National Park Service sites – Boston National Historical Park, Boston African American National Historic Site and Boston Harbor Islands National and State Park. Established by individual legislation and designated purposes, the three units have come together as a unified and collaborative organizational structure. Sites associated with the National Parks of Boston include the Bunker Hill Monument, Charlestown Navy Yard, Dorchester Heights, as well as a variety of partnerships along Boston’s “Trails to Freedom.” In addition, National Parks of Boston contributes to the stewardship of Boston Harbor Islands and the Black Heritage Trail. To learn more about these three national parks, visit the parks’ websites at www.nps.gov/bost, www.nps.gov/boha, and www.nps.gov/boaf.

Commitment to Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion:
Boston Harbor Now is an intentionally diverse workplace. We are intentional about hiring, developing, and retaining people of color at all levels. We don’t just accept differences – we celebrate them, we value them, we promote them, and we thrive on them for the benefit of our employees, volunteers, supporters, partners, and community. We recognize that people bring their personal histories to work and that we make better decisions when we include a wide range of experiences and opinions. Diversity refers not only to race and gender, but also to an array of human differences including: culture, ethnicity, geography, socio-economic position, ability, sexual orientation, background, perspective and more that exist in the community and are reflected in the workforce. We value using a race equity lens to manage the organization and create spaces for conversations on race and ongoing staff and board engagement and empowerment to redesign policies, practices, services and programs. Boston Harbor Now, and the Stone Living Lab, strongly believe that diversity plays an essential role in our mission, fostering innovation and creativity, attracting the best candidates to our team, and enhancing our ability to serve.

Boston Harbor Now is an equal opportunity and affirmative action employer.
